Of Interest to Women.

从水水水水水水水水水水水水水水水水水水水水 truck him when he was least prepared for it. Mid-meal his father turned square upon him, growling out. Whereabouts in your travels did you leave your manners, and your senses? I think you had better go back and try to find them."

"What's the row, Governor?" Rob demanded innocently. The Major ex-

"That's what I'd like to know. There must be a row between you and Jean Bascum—last night you hardly were civil to her, but went tagging around after that Clayton creature."

"There's the Bascum temper—I'm afraid it's hereditary—besides, Elsie Clayton says she would permit the minister to leave obey in the marriege ser vice," Rob began. His father cut him short. "If maters have gone as far as that," he said, 'just you listen to this. Unless you marry to suit me, you'll find that my will ties up things as tight as that old simpleton, Jimmy Jackson, tried to the up all he left..."

"Why! I thought you believed in the will?" Rob interrupted. His father turned redder than ever.

"I have nothing against Jean Bas-terday, when Mrs. Glendinning entertained in honor of her mother, Mrs.

Hubbard W. Reed, who has just returned from a year's trib abroad. Tall vases of llines graced mantel and plane, and low howis of the same flowers were placed on tables and book cases in the parior and library. Punch was served in the library from a table prettly decorated with the prevailing flowers. The dining-table was attractive indeed, in fact one of the prettiest seen her recently. A very handsome cover of Battenberg was placed over green satin, the cover extending almost to the floor on all sides. In the center of a table was a beautiful cut glass vase of Chainey roses. At one end were of Chainey roses. At one end were handsome silver candelabra at either cor-ner, one holding pink candles and orna-namented with a bow of pink ribbon, the other holding green candles and orna-mented with a bow of green. Tea was served at the opposite end of the table.

mented with a bow of green. Tea was served at the opposite end of the table. On the sideboard was a beautiful silver candelabrum with candles and bow of pink, a tall vase of Chatney roses also gracing the sideboard. The hours of the tea were from 4 to 6 o'clock, during which time about seventy-live guests called Mrs. Glendinning was assisted by Mrs. Hubbard W. Reed, Mrs. Benner X. Smith, Mrs. William H. Cunningham. Mrs. James Chambers Dick, Miss Anderson, Miss Leta McMillan, Miss Elizabeth McIntyre, A ladles' stringed quarette furnished most delightful music throughout the afternoon.

The home of Samuel Newhouse, which

The home of Samuel Newhouse, which has become noted for the hospitality of its owner, was last night the scene of another elegant dinner party. Covers were were laid for fourteen at one long table, in the center of which stood a large silver bowl filled with Chatney roses, the edge of the bowl outlined with sweet alyssum. At either end of the table stood handsome silver candelabra, with candles of pink and shades of point lace over pink. Heads of American girls, beautifully done in water colors, adorned the place cards. Mrs. A. E. Walker chaperoned the party, the young ladles having been asked to invite their own partners for the evening. In addition to Mrs. Walker there were present Miss Salisbury, Miss McGrath, Miss Kinney, Miss Zane, Miss Read, Will Lawrence, J. Walcott Thompson, George N. Lawrence, Jawas T. Goodwin, Jack Royle and Mr. Topliff.

and Mr. Topliff.

An Italian luncheon, followed by an Italian musicale, was the delightful entertainment enjoyed by the guests of Mrs. Ira H. Lewis at her home yesterday afternoon. Preceding the musicale, which was enjoyed by about thirty guests, the hostess and Mrs. M. A. Hughes, Mrs. Mayne, Miss Mary Louise Anderson and Miss Berkhoel enjoyed a luncheon at which only Italian was spoken. The decorations and the menu were also Italian, the former carried out in the tri-colors of Italy, the latter written in Italian on Italian parchment, tied with ribbons of red, white and green. Flags of Italy were suspended from the chandelier over the dining-table, the floral decorations of which consisted of nasturtiums and fleur-de-lis. A very charming musical programme followed the luncheon, the following numbers being beautifully rendered An aria from "Romeo and Juliet" by Miss Berkhoel; "Mephistopheles" (Bolto), by Mrs. Lewis and Miss Berkhoel; "Voi che sapete" (Mozart), by Mrs. Laliu S. Mayne; two piano solos, "Italian Barcarolle" (Rubinstein), and "Lolia" (Chaminade), by Mrs. Agnes Osborne; an "Aria" (Rossini), by Mrs. Lewis; the "Gavotte" from "Miguon" (Thomas), by Miss Berk

Found a Cure for Indigestion.

I use Chambertain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsla remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.-George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by all icading druggests.

Lawrence, James and Mr. Topliff,

A WILL AND A WAY.

BY MARTHA M'CULLOCH-WILLIAMS.

(Copyright, 1904, by Martha McCulloch-Williams.)

da I-almost," Aunt Mary and with a little sigh.

meent Jean began to laugh, gical, bubbling peal, good to hear. If it was any other time I shouldn't t-not so very much." Aunt Mary "I'm bound to say it for or father, my brother John, he's as al hard. I know he wouldn't ever per gone out of his way to quarrel ah Maj. Hymes-but knowing poor, Tacle Jimmy Jackson as he did, he bound to stand up for that willely said what the old man had told wer and over and overthow." Jean interrupted, then with auch: "I know, too, Aunty darling, distressed because I shall be left meak for herself," the Major an-of the Hymes party. I do want to dradfully. Not so much on acis there-and what the in use is there—and what the two will do to get a beau apiece—" on! I believe you'd like to have a beau yourself. Miss." Aunt Mary wil Jean smiled and nodded, at I wouldn't go gunning for them, a fashion-not if I grew to the k of and can't well do anything rish you couldn't do anything else ite then you wouldn't hold your think there ought to be a law head so high you never see me." some-body said through the open window. It was Rob Hymes, who had been caves-dropping these last three minutes. He went straight to Aunt Mary, kissed her handsomely, and patted her hand, then turned reproachful eyes on Jean "If you think mother and I mean to be drawn into this absurd quarrel, you clearly don't know the sort of folk we The case is just this-unless you say you'll come, there won't be any

Why, Rob, I'd love to-but how can father, my brother John.

L with our fathers glaring and breathing out threatenings whenever they think of each other?" Jean walled.

Rob snapped his fingers. "That for all their rows," he said. "I hate to seem wanting in respect to my elders and betters, neighborhood dignitaries, too-but Squire John Bascom and Henry Hymes are a pair of spoiled children in spite of their gray hairs, and need to be disciplined accordingly."

Who's going to do it? Rob dropped his eyes and answered neekly: "I propose to be an humble nstrument in the hands of divine prov-instrument in the hands of divine passed dence—and the Claytons."

"Indeed! Tell us about it. I don't believe there's anything to tell,"Jean said, propping her toes together, and laying her hands primly in her lap.

Rob filliped them delicately, then went on "We all know those old gen-tlemen have agreed ever since we two were born that we were born on pur-pose for each other. Indeed, my father thinks my main reason for being is to give him a chance of calling you daughter. To bring them to their senses, we must pretend not only to have taken up their quarrel, but that we are going to marry somebody else."

"You'll have an excellent chance to do it—if you say sweet things to Elsle Clayton." Jean said. "But it's different with me—I don't know a soul I would dare to propose to-

"I know several who are simply dying for a chance to propose to you though." Rob said gallantly, playing plgs-went-to-market with her fingers. Aunt Mary tried to look scaudalized. but ended by laughing heartily. Jean drew down the corners of her mouth, and pretended to sigh, asking. "Where shall I find them, Robby, dear? I am simply dying to say 'Yes!" and 'Thanky' to somebody."

to somebody."

"There's no time like the present—and you have never accepted me outright," Rob retorted. "But at the party you are to smile your sweetest on BenLloyd—and Ben only. I know it's pretty tough on him—but he has promised not to mind. Seeing he can't have you himself, he's ready to do a man's part to beln you get me."

o help you get me."
Then the three fell to talking all at It was late afternoon when Rob went home, humming a love tune, and smilling as he rode along. The Hymes party turned out to be far and away the grandest Hopewell neigh-borhood had ever seen. Notwithstand-ing. Maj. Hymes got up the morning after with a sense of aching loss. He sighed all through dressing, and at breakfast swore because there was no waffles, only biscuit, muffins and bat-tercakes. At least he said that was the reason. Rob, with his eyes in his plate, and a general air of dreams, smiled, and waited prudently for the storm to

A HANDSOME WAIST.

DESIGN BY MAY MANTON.

4329 MISSES' BLOUSE WAIST.

No style of waist suits girlish figures more perfectly than this one with its beside believe at the front below a deep yoke. The model is made of porcelain assailine satin, the yoke being overlaid with motifs of lace and is trimmed all braid but there are a host of materials that might be suggested. The body loke, together with the sleeve one and the body local triangle. Yoke, together with the sleeve caps, gives the broad line of the season, the bolero with its soft folds provides just the fulness required for slender ed figures. The sleeves are full and ample with cuffs that form deep extensions over the puffs. To make the waist for a girl of 14 years of age Pentined 4% yards of material 21, 3% yards 27 or 2% yards 44 inches wide. Munton pattern, No. 4029, size 12 to 16 years, will be mailed to any address Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents.

(Ten Cents Inclosed.)

Pattern No..... As orders are filled from the East, it will require about ten days m receipt of order to receive patterns.

There is no Substitute for

It is a Matter of Health

but went on, pounding the table hard between words. "Yes, sir, your wife must please me, or you'll have hard sledding. Elsie Clayton, indeed! Look at your mother, sir, and be properly ashamed of your taste."

"I have nothing against Jean Basalong with me, sir! By George, it makes me think more than ever of Jean. If she sticks up this way for her father, what won't she do for a husband or sen?" com," Rob began judicially. But she is taken up with Ben Lloyd. Then, too, she evidently takes her father's side husband or son?"

Five minutes afterward, they were galloping toward the Bascom place. As luck would have it, Squire Bascom met she evidently takes her father's side— just as I have taken yours—"
"Then you're a fool for your pains, sir," the Major fairly shouted. "Of course, she takes her father's side— that's the natural, the right thing for a woman. But you—If you were half a man, you would have shown her that you two had nothing to do with the case. You must be bewitched with the Clayton fried-egg eyes." them just inside the gate. Maj. Hymes did not wait for a word of welcome-twenty yards off, he roared out: "Say, John Bascom! I've come to beg your pardon, and ask you for your daughter. Give 'em to me quick, else I'll be mak-ing a fool will for other folks to quarrel you two had nothing to do with the case. You must be bewitched with the Clayton fried-egg eyes."

"Not particularly." Rob said, masking a laugh with a fit of coughing, "But I did make up to Jean—far enough to find out she would have nothing to say to me—not unless you apologized to the Soulre, which I knew was ont of the over."
"I reckon I've a right to ask your pardon, Major," Squire Bascom said, smiling and holding out his hand. "But the daughter—there you've got means a speak." where the wool's short-I can't speak

"Oh! All we want is a chance to have her speak for herself," the Major an-"Indeed! You had better not know so much," Maj. Hymes said witheringly. "But if that's the hitch, why it's pretty easily straightened. Come "Oh! All we want is a chance to ha her speak for herself," the Major a swered.

Rob smiled to hear him. Down in I heart he knew what Jean would say.

Rob smiled to hear him. Down in his

Col. and Mrs. Edwin F. Holmes give a box party for the Orpheus club concer-at the Sait Lake Theater this evening.

Invitations have been issued by the Bachelor Maids of the University for a dancing party tomorrow evening at the museum building. The chapcrones will be Mrs. Joseph T. Kingsbury, Mrs. W. W. Riter, Mrs. Byron Cummings, Miss Rose M. Vimont, Mrs. Emma J. McVicker, Mrs. William M. Stewart, Mrs. J. E. McKnight and Miss Anna Youngberg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertain at dinner this evening in henor of Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris.

Capt. S. V. Ham entertained Gov. Dur-bin, Secretary of State Storm and Attor-ney-General Miller of Indiana at the pos-

An invitation has been received by Mrs. William A. Nelden of this city to assist at a reception to be given by the general press committee of the General Federation of Women's clubs to the World's fair press parliament, on Saturday afternoon, May II, at the World's fair grounds, St. Louis

Mrs. A. W. McCune, Jr., has gone to California for an indefinite stay.

Harold Bird returned yesterday from Berkeley, where he has been attending school for the past year.

Mrs. W. H. Bintz and Miss June Bintz

Members of the Wei Kaw Sewing club will give a box party at the Salt Lake Theater Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Billings have is-sued invitations for a cord party tomor-row night at their home.

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold a rummage sale in the church parlots next Saturday.

Mrs. Edward Bichsel and Mrs. Jennie Nelson, both of Ogden, will attend the biennial convention of the General Fed-eration at St. Louis, Mrs. Bichsel is one of the delegates from Utah.

Miss Mercy Berkeley leaves shortly for Marletta, O., where she will be brides-maid at the marriage of her cousin, and will later spend the summer with rela-tives and friends.

The marriage of Miss Clara Bailey and Dr. Enoch Van Cott took place last evening at the home of the bride's sister. Mrs. Davis. Bishop Orson F. Whitney performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends, the marriage service being followed by a large reception. Dr. and Mrs. Van Cott.

ney-General and Tuesday afternoon.

R AND MRS ROBERT J. GLEN.

DINNING'S pretty home was the scene of a very delightful tea yesmany a day.

will make their home in this city, where both have many friends who will wish them joy.

Mrs. George W. Snow entertained the members of her card club very pleasantly at her home yesterday afternoon.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Atkinson, 1:8 North Third West street, the ladies of the First Baptist church will give a Kensington, which all numbers of the Ald society and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

FOR FEMININE READERS.

Five University of Chicago young women captured the coveted Phi Beta Kappa key as the result of the quarterly election of the Beta of Illinois Chap-ter of the fraternity. Only two men succeeded in reaching the required standard of excellence in their studies during the four years of the university ourse, an unusual occurrence at the university, where it has been consid-ered next to impossible for the women to win the prize. The successful young women are Anna P. Youngman, Agnes B. McNelsh, Edna Dunlap, Hattle Pal-mer and Laura Ward. The Chicago Legal News makes the following comerary contests in many of the leading universities of the United States, and the women of the University of Chicago are new added to the number.

white," says the Brooklyn Eagle, "and never since the days when the white flag waved above the Tuileries has so much white been seen. In 1815 fashion-able women wore gowns of white and were in white.

"Again white will be quite as much worn as in the 1815 days and there is Messrs O. H. Gray, Hugh Satterice and George Riter give a box party at the Salt Lake Theater this evening.

Hull House Woman's club, through a Mrs. Union Worthington has issued cards for a tea next Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home. have a clubhouse of its own. Miss Jane Addams says the building will be erect-ed on land adjoining the Hull House

It has amused many people to read Miss Agatha Berkhoel and Miss Beatrice O'Connor will entertain at cards next Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Esther Allen, who leaves shortly for Ber-lin, and Miss Marguerite Donnellan, who goes to California early in June for an extended stay. Queen Alexandra on her coronation day. The fact is true, but not that they were the Queen's own jewels, nor that, as has been rumored, the Queen York placed on her head at the coro-nation was designed and made for the occasion by the crown jeweler, who used a few of the Queen's stones, but supplied all the rest from his stock. After the great day was passed, these stones which had figured in the cere-mony were engerly sought by many, hence the embroidered tale.

leave early in June to spend the summer in Laramie, Wyo., and Denver. As this is a season of ornaments, one must not forget the little rosettes of Harry Fulton, who has been attending a medical college near Baltimore, will re-turn next week to spend the summer with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Keogh. He is now enjoying a visit at the World's fair. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Oswald entertained at a charming informal dinner Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. N. A. Swift of Boise. Covers were taid for seven. Mrs. A. W. Putnam of Ogden, chairman of the State reciprocity bureau of the Utsh Federation of Women's clubs, has been invited to open the discussion on reciprocity at the biennial convention of the General Federation at St. Louis next week. All clubwomen of Utah will appreciate the honor which has been conferred upon Mrs. Putnam, and will regret that it is impossible for her to accept the invitation.

The size varies from the button re-sette for the stock to the rosette as big as a saucer, which is placed upon the side breadth of the skirt. This is cheaper and much more durable nent: Women have come to the front in lit-

"Paris has come out emphatically for carried white fans. Their heads were dressed with white feathers raised to an enormous height, and their underwear, trimmings, hosiery, shoes and all really no limit to the number of ma-terials that can be obtained in white. White chiffon velvet makes a gorgeous evening gown and, trimmed with white taffeta and white lace, it becomes al-together charming. It is so soft that it adapts itself readily to drapery, and it is so fine in its texture and so delicate-ly becoming that all can wear it."

gift of $20,000 just received from Mrs. Joseph Tilton Bowen, will be the first woman's organization in Chicago to structures now standi that certain fashionable women in Eng-land were bragging that they had bought some of the jewels worn by was glad to dispose of them. The real facts are quite simple, and are these: The fine crown which the archbishop if iawn and linen which are so plentifully used to trim the summer dresses. These are made of ling strips of linen, doubled and shirred. The string is pulled up until a rosette is formed. Every woman knows how to make these rosettes. They are used in place of ribbon choux for trimming wash dreases. They are placed upon the cuffs, upon the belt, the stock and upon the joke.

Mrs. W. L. Rhodes of Manchester, N. H., is a member of the first uni-formed body of rural free delivery mail-carriers in the country. Her dress is of cadet gray, with black trimmings.

It is no small comfort to have Schilling's Best on call at your grocer's; a pity one can't get everything such and

ESTABLISHED 1864

ONE PRICE TO ALL NEVER UNDERSOLD

Supremely Important Selling Events for Friday!

From 9 to 12 o'clock FRIDAY MORNING.

20c Curtain Swisses at 121/2 c a Yard.

48 pieces in the lot, and there are curtain Swisses of all descrip-tions, every dot you can ask for, figures and lace stripe ef-fects, ALL 40 INCHES WIDE, Drapery Swisses, positively worth 20c a yard, for 3 hours Friday, from 9 to 12 noon, at a yard 12 1/2 C A Store-Crowding Sale Special.

> 25c Grade Washable Stock Collars.

From 2 to 12 o'clock FRIDAT 10c

From 2 to 5 o'clock FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

1150 Yards Novelty Shirt Waist Suit Silks In fancy weave taffetas, checked silks, striped silks, polka dot silks in all the leading 1904 col-orings, value $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 yard, Friday from 2 to 5 p. m., for three hours, tire lot at a yard ..... .. 69c

Gents' Furnishing Section.

SPECIAL. GENTS' PURE WHITE LINEN HEMSTITCHED HANDKER. CHIEFS, 20c values, for three hours only for HALF PRICE.... 12½C

FRIDAY ALL DAY. CLOAK DEPT.

Ladies' Tailored Suits --$6.50.

Only 40 in this lot. Suits are made of fine all-wool Ventian costs are satin None of these suits ever sold for less

FRIDAY ONLY YOUR CHOICE

$6,50

Barton's Store.

SWELL SOFT HATS.

ones, too) are coming in for one of the new smart and swagger soft hats we are showing for spring wear. Can't tell you about them-you must see them on the head to appreciate all the style there is in them. If you want something that's strictly swell,

Free Ice

30 Days

good May 25.

purchased here. This offer

Refrigerators

$6 to $100

We sell the Notional and Century.

Brubaker-Campbell

Hardware Company

27-29 W. 3rd South.

'Phone 1637 K.

$1.50, $2, $2.50, $3 Up to $5 Grades.

BARTON @

Clothies, Hatters, 45-47 Main

YOU NEED CLEANSING

Throughout your entire system. Fitts' lodized Sarsaparlila will rid the blood of the acids and impurities that clog the physical machinery and corrode the liver, kidneys, heart and lungs. It is prompt and powerful, acting directly upon the glandular system; gives renewed tone and vigor to the vital organs. $1.00 the bottle, 6 for $5.00.

******************

Welcome. Step in. All cars I

Godbe-Pitts Drug Store

*

"CLEANLINESS"

Is the watchword for health and vigor, comfort and beauty. Mankind is learning not only the necessity but the luxury of deanliness. SAPOLIO, which has wrought such changes in the home, an-

HAND SAPOLIO

A special soap which energizes the whole body, starts the circulation and leaves an exhilarating glow. All grocers and druggists.

Hill Drug Co. and Chas. Van Dyke.

BOES Manufacturer and dealer in jewelry and diamonds and other precious stones. We pay particular attention to first-class watch repairing. Are well prepared to do all work in that line, as we carry a full as-sortment of material. 259 SO. MAIN ST

UNION ASSAY OFFICE, M. S. HANAUER, Managen Removed to III South W. Temple, SAMPLES BY MAIL AND EXPRESS will receive prompt attention. Analytical work a specialty. Send for price list.

For sale by F. C. Schramm, F. J.